The disciples' feet were hot and dusty. Usually a servant would wash their feet before a meal, but there was no servant. Each of them thought he was too important to wash dirty feet – so who do you think did this job? It was Jesus, their teacher and Lord! If he could do such a horrid, smelly job for his friends, then how can we show our friends we care for them?

The Bahamas Board Game

Race around the board to find where the old pirates buried their treasure on one of the beautiful islands. Watch out for dangers along the way.

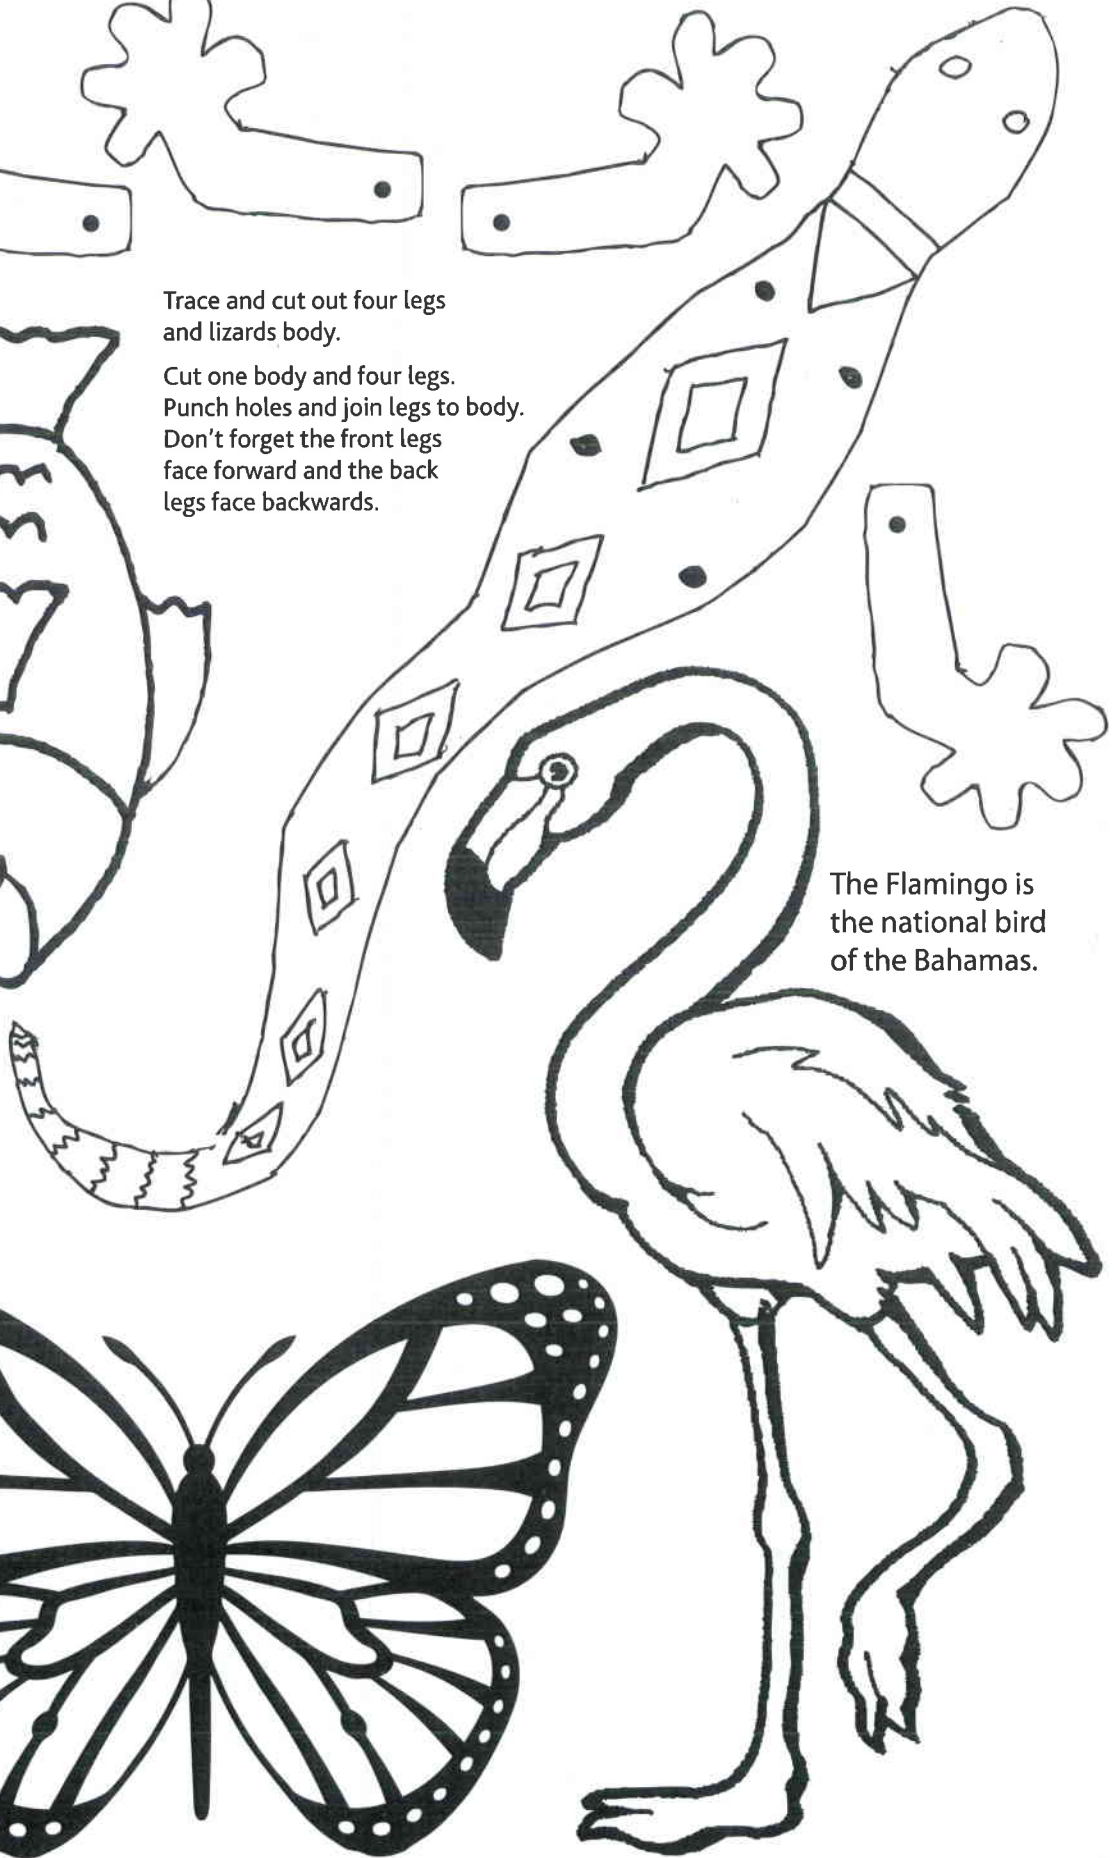

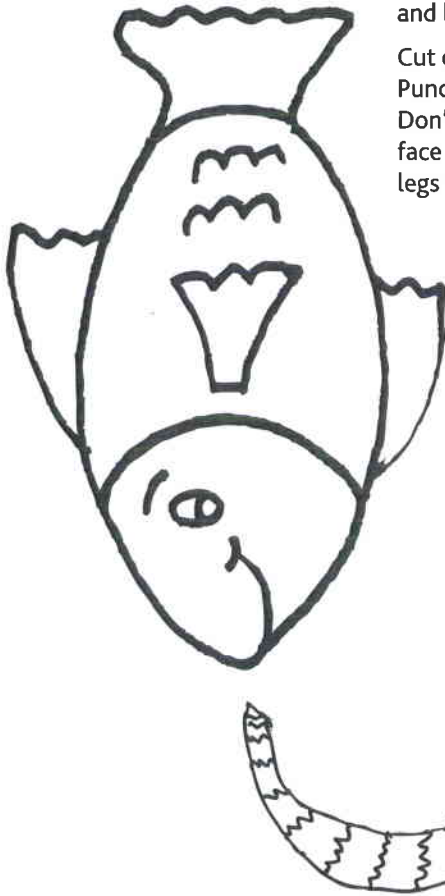

The board game map features 24 numbered islands connected by a red dashed path. The islands are surrounded by a blue sea with white waves. A pirate ship is at the start (1), a lighthouse is at 17, and a treasure chest is at 24. A compass rose is at the bottom right.
