

embrace : space

How do you want to be described?

Which of those attributes are truly you? Which aren't?

embrace : space

In your opinion, what are some of the people groups from your church and/or the surrounding community that is not represented within your church.

embrace : space

What can you do personally to create a more inclusive culture within your/the church?

embrace : space

What group settings in the church (or among believers) are you most comfortable sharing intimate parts of your life with?